(ii) on a requisition in writing signed by not less than 24 members and stating the purpose other than that mentioned in the first proviso to clause (b) of regulation 34 and for a purpose within the scope of the Central Council's functions for which they desire the meeting to be called.

30. The first meeting of the Central Council held in any financial year shall be the annual meeting of the Council for that year.

31. At any meeting referred to in the proviso to regulation 29 only the subject or subjects for the consideration of which the meeting has been called shall be discussed.

32. NOTICE OF MEETING

Notice of every meeting other than a special meeting called under the proviso to regulation 29 or under the first proviso to clause (b) of regulation 34 shall be despatched by the Registrar to each member of the Central Council not less than 30 days before the date of the meeting.

33. Agenda Papers

(1) The Registrar shall, with the notice of the meeting, issue preliminary agenda paper showing the business to be brought before the meeting, the terms of all motions to be moved for which the notice in writing has previously reached him and the names of the movers.

(2) A member who wishes to move any motion not included in the preliminary agenda paper or an amendment to any motion so included shall give notice thereof to the Registrar not less than 15 clear days before the date fixed for the meeting.

(3) The Registrar shall, not less than 15 clear days before the date fixed for the meeting or in the case of a special meeting, with the notice of the meeting, issue a complete agenda paper showing the business to be brought before the meeting.

(4) A member who wishes to move an amendment to any item included in the complete agenda paper shall give notice thereof to the Registrar not less than 3 clear days before the date fixed for the meeting.

(5) The Registrar shall, if time permits, cause a list of amendments of which notice has been given under clause (4) to be made available for the use of every member.

Provided that the President may if the Central Council agrees allow a motion to be discussed at a meeting notwithstanding the fact that notice was received late:

Provided further that nothing in this regulation shall operate to prevent the reference the Executive Committee of any matter to the Central Council at a meeting following immediately or too soon after the meeting of the Executive Committee to permit of the notice required under this regulation.

Admissibility of Motion

34 The President shall disallow any motion:

(a) if the matter to which it relates is not within the scope of the Central Council's functions or;

(b) if it raises substantially the same question as a motion or amendment which has been moved or withdrawn with the leave of the Central Council within one year of the date of the meeting at which it is designed to move:

Provided that such a motion be admitted at a special meeting of the Central Council convened for the purpose on the requisition of not less than 2/3 of the members of the Central Council:

Provided further that nothing in these regulations shall operate to prohibit the further discussion of any matter referred to the Central Council by the Government of India in the exercise of any of its functions under the Act:

(c) if it is not clearly and precisely expressed and does not raise substantially one definite issue; or

(d) if it contains arguments, inferences, ironical expressions, imputations, or defamatory statements:

Provided that if a motion can be rendered admissible amendment the President may in lieu of disallowing the motion, admit it in an amended form.

35. When the President disallows or amends a motion, the Registrar shall inform the member who gave notice of the motion of the order of disallowance or, as the case may be, of the form in which the motion has been admitted.

PART V

CONDUCT OF BUSINESS OF MEETINGS OF THE CENTRAL COUNCIL

36. Every meeting of the Central Council shall be presided over by the President or if he is absent, by one of the Vice-Presidents in the order given in sub-regulation (2) of regulation 5 or if the President and the Vice-Presidents are absent, by a Chairman to be elected by the members present from among themselves.

Note:

All references in this part to the President shall be read as reference to the person for the time being presiding over a meeting.

37. If at any time appointed for a meeting or during the course of a meeting quorum is not present, the meeting shall be adjourned and if a quorum is not present on the expiration of thirty minutes for the time appointed for the meeting or during the course of any meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such future time as the President may appoint.

38. (1) Every matter to be determined by the Central Council shall be determined on a motion moved by a member.

(2) Every motion or amendment shall be seconded and if not seconded shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

(3) When a motion has been seconded, it shall be stated from the Chair.

(4) When a motion has been thus stated, it may be discussed as a question to be resolved either in the affirmative or in the negative or any member may subject to regulation 40 move an amendment to the motion:
Provided that the President shall not allow an amendment to be moved which if it had been a substantive motion would have been inadmissible under regulation 34.

40. (1) An amendment shall be relevant to and within the scope of the motion to which it is proposed.

(2) An amendment may not be moved which has merely the effect of a negative vote.

(3) The President may refuse to put to the Central Council, an amendment, which in his opinion, is frivolous.

41. A motion may be amended by:

(a) the omission, insertion or addition of words, or
(b) the substitution of words for any of the original words.

42. When a motion or amendment is under debate, no proposal with reference thereto shall be made other than:

(a) an amendment of the motion or of the amendment, as the case may be, as proposed in regulation 38;

(b) a motion for the adjournment of the debate on the motion or amendment either to a specified date and hour or sine-die;

(c) a motion for the closure, namely, a motion that the question be now put;

(d) a motion that the Central Council instead of proceeding to deal with the motion, do pass to the next item on the agenda:

Provided that no motion of the nature referred to in clause (b), (c) or (d) shall be moved or seconded by a member who has already spoken on that matter.

43. It shall be in the discretion of the President to put or refuse to put to the Central Council a proposal of the nature referred to in clause (b) of regulation 42.

44. Unless the President is of the opinion that a motion for closure is an abuse of the right of reasonable debate, he shall forthwith put a motion that the question be now put and if that motion is carried, the substantive motion or amendment under debate shall be put forthwith:

Provided that the President may allow the mover of the substantive motion to exercise his right of reply before the substantive motion under debate is put.

45. A motion or an amendment which has been moved and seconded shall not be withdrawn save with leave of the Central Council which shall not be deemed to be granted if any member dissects from granting of the leave.

46. When a motion has been moved and seconded, members other than the mover and the seconder may speak on the motion in such order as the President may direct:

Provided that the seconder of a motion or an amendment may with the permission of the President confine himself to seconding the motion or amendment as the case may be and speak thereon at any subsequent stage of the debate.

47. During the meeting the President may at any time make any objection or suggestion to any point to the member in discussion.
48. (1) The mover of a motion, and if permitted by the President, the mover of any amendment shall be entitled to right to final reply; no other member shall speak more than once to any debate except with the permission of the President for the purpose to make a personal explanation or of putting a question to the member then addressing the Council:

Provided that any member at any stage of the debate may rise to a point of order but no speech shall be allowed on that point:

Provided further that a member who has spoken on a motion may speak again on an amendment subsequently moved to the motion.

(2) No member shall, save with the permission of the President, speak for more than five minutes:

Provided that the mover of a motion when bringing the same may speak for ten minutes.

(3) The speech shall be strictly confined to the subject matter of the motion of an amendment, which is under discussion.

(4) Any motion or amendment standing in the name of a member who is absent from the meeting or unwilling to move it may be brought forward by the other member with the permission of the President.

49. (1) A member desiring to make any suggestion on the matter before the Central Council shall speak from his place, shall rise in his seat, and shall address the President.

(2) It at any time the President speaks, any member speaking shall immediately resume his seat.

50. (1) When an amendment to any motion is moved and seconded or when two or more such amendments are moved and seconded, the President shall before taking the sense of the Central Council thereon state to the Council the terms of the original motion and of the amendment or amendment proposed.

(2) An amendment to a motion shall be put to the vote first.

(3) If there be more than one amendment to a motion, the President shall decide in what order they shall be taken.

51. When any motion involving several points has been discussed, it shall be in the discretion of the President to divide the motion and put each or any point separately to vote as he may think it.

52. (1) Vote shall be taken by show of hands or by division or by ballot as the President may direct:

Provided that votes shall be taken by ballot if three members so desire or ask for it:

Provided further that if voting has been by show of hands, division shall be taken if any member asks for it.

(2) The President shall determine the method of taking votes by division.

(3) The result of the votes shall be announced by the President and shall not be challenged.

(4) In the event of equality of votes, the President shall have a second or casting vote.

53. (1) The President may, if deems necessary due to exigencies, at any time, adjourn any meeting to any future date or to any hour of the same date.

(2) Whenever a meeting is adjourned to a future date, the Registrar shall, if possible, send notice of the adjournment to every member, who was not present at such meeting.
(3) When a meeting has been adjourned to a future date, the President may change such date to any other date and the Registrar shall send written notice of the change to each member, and at least 7 days before such meeting.

(4) At a meeting adjourned to a future date any motion standing over from the previous date, shall unless the President otherwise directs, take precedence over other matters on the agenda.

(5) Either at the beginning of the meeting or after the conclusion of the debate on a motion during the meeting, the President or a member may suggest a change in the order of business on the agenda and if the Central Council agrees such a change shall take place.

(6) No matter which had not been on the agenda of the original meeting shall be discussed at an adjourned meeting.

54. (1) The President shall decide all points of order which may arise and his decision shall be final.

(2) If any question arises with reference to procedure in respect of a matter for which these regulations make no provision, the President shall decide the same and his decision shall be final.

55. (1) Five representatives of the Press, at the discretion of the President, and other visitors not exceeding five at a time may be admitted to the meeting on the production of permits from the Registrar.

(2) A Press representative shall be required to obtain previous approval of the Registrar to the publication of any report of the proceeding.
