VISTION OF COLLEGES

Before the next meeting of Education Committee (Lamination) for in-depth discussion and recommendations,
It was also suggested that the CICM should continue to encourage the following:

- Take necessary steps to implement the recommendations of the Council of Health and Medicine and the concerned authorities to ensure that the provisions of the Indian Medicine and National Ayurvedic Commission Act, 1970 are followed in the state and the country.
- Ensure that the Council of Health and Medicine is adequately informed and involved in the implementation of the recommendations of the National Commission on Indian Medicine.
- Encourage the involvement of the Central Council of Indian Medicine in the drafting and implementation of the recommendations of the National Commission on Indian Medicine.
- Take necessary action to address any concerns.

The Central Council noted the purchase of a computer worth Rs 1.47 lakh from HCL Ltd., New Delhi by adapting the proper procedure and approved.

The Central Council noted that the interest on subscription of employees for the GPF is met from Grant-in-aid (Plan & Non-Plan).

It was pointed out in the Inspection Report 1989-90 of Audit that under the expenditure side of the Income and Expenditure Account, a sum of Rs 40,657/- was shown under the head Interest to GPF. This expenditure represents interest which has been credited into accounts of subscribers and was changed from the Govt. Grant of Plan 1989-90. This expenditure should have been met from both Plan & Non-Plan proportionately.

The Ministry of Health & Family Welfare was requested for additional Grand-in-aid under Non-Plan on 13.3.90 but the amount was released under Plan by the Govt. so the total Interest on G.P. Fund for Plan & Non-Plan was met out from Plan. The Central Council approved the above.

The Central Council held its first meeting on 12th June 1979 at the Central Council House in New Delhi, where the members of the Council heard the proceedings of the Central Council. The meeting was convened by the Central Council Chairman, who presided over the meeting. The Council passed several resolutions during the meeting, including a resolution approving the appointment of a new Secretary to the Council, who was to be responsible for the day-to-day administration of the Council.

The minutes of the meeting were recorded and circulated among the members of the Council. The Council also discussed the future plans and programmes of the Central Council, and decided to form a committee to review the existing rules and regulations of the Council.

The meeting was adjourned at 5:00 PM, and the members of the Council dispersed to their respective seats.

The next meeting of the Central Council was scheduled for the first Thursday of the next month, at the Central Council House in New Delhi.

No comments.

The government of the Central Council was established in 1971 by the Indian Medicines Act, which provided for the establishment of the Central Council of Medicine and the Central Council of Pharmacy. The Central Council was responsible for regulating the practice of medicine and pharmacy in India, and for the promotion of the interests of the profession of medicine and pharmacy.

The Central Council was composed of a chairman, a deputy chairman, and not more than 12 members, appointed by the Government of India. The members of the Council were to be elected by the members of the profession of medicine and pharmacy, and were to serve for a term of three years.

The functions of the Central Council included the registration of medical practitioners and pharmacists, the issue of licences to practice, the suspension or revocation of licences, and the prosecution of persons who擅自 practice medicine or pharmacy.

The Central Council had the power to make rules and regulations for the conduct of its own business, and for the regulation of the profession of medicine and pharmacy.

The Central Council was dissolved by the Indian Medicines Act of 1971, and a new Central Council was appointed in 1979, which continued the work of the previous Council.
